BERLIN EDITORS NERVOUS OVER THREATENED STRIKE

Internal Troubles Not So Nearly Settled As Announcements Say

(Associated Press Telegram)
New York, April 27.—The desperate efforts of the Germans to drive
the British from the captured heights on the Arras front have failed after four days of the bitterest kind of fighting that the world has seen since the bloody days of Verdun. Tens of thousands of Germans were hurled forward again and again only to recoil blasted and withered from the inferno caused by the British fire.

Military critics expect that the attacks will be renewed again if the German man-power can stand the awful drain. They base this expectation on the great strategic importance of the blood-soaked heights which the British have wrested from their foes. These hills crown the great plain of Duai and their unmolested retention by General Haig spells almost certain doom to the Wotan line, the last protecting barrier before Douai and Cambrai.

In the lull of the great battle the murmur of rising currents of discontent which are sweeping through Europe can be heard more plainly.
The political and economic storm
which has been brewing in Germany has apparently been by no means averted by the hasty measures of the government. The measure items which elude the censor throw some light on the situation. Not merely are the Berlin papers showing increasing nervousness over the threatened general strike on May 1,
but it appears that the recent strike
has not been so definitely and satisfactorily settled as has been asserted.

CHICAGO WHEAT UP TO $2.70; DECLINE COMES QUICKLY

(Associated Press Telegram)
Chicago, April 27.—Wild fluctuations occurred at the opening of the wheat market today. May wheat, which sold at $2.54 1-2 at the close yesterday, after opening practically unchanged, made a perpendicular ascent of 15 3-4 cents to $2.70. This was followed immediately by a sheer tumble to $2.58 1-2. Volume of trade was small.

July advanced 9c to $2.25 and September 7 3/4 to $1.95. July and September held most of the grain
while May was declining.
A car of No. 2 red wheat was sold in the sample department of the Board of Trade today at $3.04 and at St. Louis a car of the same grade brought $3.10. These prices far outstrip all previous records.

TRANSFER TROOPS TO CAMP PERRY BY BARRY'S ORDER

(Associated Press Telegram)
Columbus, O., April 27.—Indications that Camp Perry, Ohio, is to be used as a concentration camp for federal troops were received at the office of Adjutant General George H. Wood today in the form of notification that all Ohio troops now in the federal service at Fort Sheridan, Illinois, are to be transferred to Camp Perry immediately.

The notification came from Major General Barry of the Central Army headquarters at Chicago. Ohio troops at Fort Sheridan which have not been mustered out of the federal service since returning from the Mexican border, include the First Battalion of Field Artillery, the First Battalion of the Signal Corps,
and the First Battalion of Field Engineers.

Company D of Engineers, will go to Camp Perry immediately to prepare the camp grounds for the remainder of the troops, who will be transferred as soon as transportation can be arranged. Company B of Engineers was not included in the order and will remain at Fort Sheridan.

The artillery troops include Battery A, Cleveland; B, of Akron and C of Columbus. The signal corps is comprised of Company A, Toledo, and Company B of Columbus, while all the engineers are from Cleveland.

trapped 120 coal miners. Fire was discovered shortly after 9:30 this morning. Helmet crews which entered immediately had made no report this afternoon.

QUAKE SHAKES ITALIAN STATES; MANY ARE KILLED

London, April 27.—A violent earthquake in Tuscany and Umbria is reported in a Rome dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph company to have occurred on Thursday morning.
Many persons are reported killed
at Monterchi, near Arezzo, the capital of the province of that name.
Considerable material damage is also reported.

The province of Umbria is directly
north of the province of Abruzzo, Umbria, which was devastated by the tremendous earthquake of January 13, 1915. In this latter disaster 24-203 people lost their lives and 50
towns and villages were wiped out.

HOUSE MAY VOTE TONIGHT SENATE VOTES SATURDAY

Proposed to Place Exemptions
In Hands of Civil Tribunal

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, April 27.—Debate on the war army bill reached final stages in Congress today.
In the House general debate was concluded after a session which lasted until 2:30 o'clock this morning.
The House was to meet at noon today to hear summing up speeches by Chairman Dent, of the military committee on behalf of the volunteer system, and by Representative Kahn for the selective draft plan. After that speeches were to be limited to five minutes. House leaders hoped to reach a vote tonight, although this appeared doubtful.

In the Senate the bill taken up under an agreement to reach a final vote tomorrow night. Sixteen senators still were to be heard.
Debate in the Senate was opened by Senator Jones, Republican, of Washington, who supported the selective draft.

"The man who must conduct the war, our commander in chief, urges
it as a wise and necessary measure
now," said he. "The lessons of this great war point to it as a wise
course. Why should I not vote for it?"

Senator Kenyon said he expected to support the bill but wanted exemptions in favor of men in employments of military value changed
so that the power of enforcing such exemptions would not be in the hands of military men alone. He approved the La Follette amendment
for civil tribunals to pass upon questions of exemption.

GERMAN SOLDIERS ARE DISCOURAGED BY MANY DEFEATS

(Associated Press Telegram)
Copenhagen, April 27, via London.
—General von Stein, German minister of war admitted during a discussion of military affairs by the Reichstag committee yesterday that field poster letters from soldiers at the front showed a certain amount of discouragement. This, however,
was only a passing sentiment, he explained, and in general the spirit of the troops was good. In a war like the present one, one could not expect an unbroken stream of victories,
he said.

General von Stein's report is considered to have influenced the committee in sending through Field Marshal von Hindenburg greetings and assurances of solid support to the army which the Radical Socialists
member of the committee alone refused to sign.

SIGHT TWO STRANGE VESSELS; MAY BE GERMAN RAIDERS

(Associated Press Telegram)
New York, April 27.—Passengers
on an unnamed ship which arrived
today from Central America reports passing two strange crafts. The first was a gray tramp observed in Haitian waters. This vessel which crossed the American bow at surprising speed, had guns mounted fore and aft. She did not make known her identity and disappeared toward the south. The second vessel was seen off the American coast yesterday, the passengers said. She was a three-masted schooner which flew no flag or signals and tacked across the bow of the American. The latter shot at her and outdistanced
the stranger.

BERLIN EDITORS MAKE APPEAL TO ALL WORKINGMEN NOT TO CUT OFF MUNITION SUPPLIES TO IMPERIAL ARMY

(Associated Press Telegram)
Copenhagen, April 27, via London.—All the German newspapers
today indicate a deep and widespread apprehension that a revival of last week's strike movement is imminent. The whispers of a possible May Day strike, which came from a few papers yesterday swelled
today to a chorus of expostulation and appeal to the workingmen not to allow themselves to be swept off their feet by strike agitators nor to leave their brothers in the field in the lurch by checking the stream of munitions and supplies.

First and foremost comes the official proclamation from Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg, addressed formally to the Federal States but really to labor, and containing both appeal and a stern warning against further interference with the munition works.

A manifesto from the four big miners unions warns their members against reckless regrettable action
because of unsatisfactory authorities.

They will be replaced by men obtained under the military auxiliary service law and women.

Some of the men taken from the industries will be sent to fill the gaps resulting from the tremendous casualties in the battles on the western front and others to permit
the release of older men, particularly the fathers of families, while still others will serve as substitutes
for skilled miners now with the color coal mines.

A strong ferment is evident
among the laboring masses, caused by food conditions, including the reduction of rations and the extreme
cost of living, and weariness of war.

This view is confirmed by an American business man who has just succeeded in leaving Germany and who though ignorant of the indications given by the German newspapers of yesterday and today, told The Associated Press correspondent that Berlin was still seething with strike feeling and that the impression was widespread there that there would be another strike outbreak on May Day.

Whether the government's vigorous remonstrances and warnings will be more effective than the campaign of unofficial appeal preceding the strike of April 16 remains to be seen. Persons here familiar with conditions in Germany, however, express themselves as finding it difficult to believe that the German authorities if they make up their minds to energetic action will be able to cope with the situation particularly in view of their right to take over all munition plants as army estab-

ORLANDO MOULL FIRES RIFLE BULLET INTO BRAIN; SON HEARS FATAL SHOT

Orlando V. Moull, 80, one of the best known farmers in the county
and known throughout the state, committed suicide at his home at the end of Jefferson Lane this afternoon at 1 o'clock.
Advancing years had affected
his mind and while he had threatened on numerous occasions to take his life, his threat was not seriously considered. This afternoon he discharged a rifle by the use of a yard
stick, the shot penetrating his forehead just between the eyes. Death was instantaneous.

He had made his home with his son Fred Moull on the farm and the latter was the first to reach his side.

The Moull family is one of the oldest in the history of the county.
Moull street running off of North Fourth street was named after one farm and Moull Lane now known as Jefferson Lane was named for the Orlando Moull farm.

The deceased is survived by a sister, Miss Kate Moull, one son Fred Moull and a daughter Mrs. D. A.
Greene.

The body was taken in charge by funeral director L. N. Bradley and was removed to the Bradley morgue.
Funeral arrangements will be made later.

TWO KILLED, THREE HURT AS GERMANS SHELL COAST TOWN

(Associated Press Telegram)
London, April 27.—German destroyers attacked Ramsgate last night, according to an official announcement issued by the war office.
A large number of shells were fired
but the destroyers were driven off
by the fire from the land batteries.

One man and one woman were killed during the bombardment and one man and two women were injured.
Although this morning's bombardment was the heaviest that Ramsgate has experienced in the various attacks made during the war, the damage was relatively small, says
an Exchange Telegraph report from the bombarded town. More than 100 shells fell in the town, the advices state, but only ten houses were seriously damaged. One man was killed by the shell fire and a woman died after she had been taken to a hospital.

AUSTRIAN WOULD CLEAN ALL FLAGS FREE OF CHARGE

American patriot, has tendered a proposition through the Youngstown Chamber of Commerce to prove his love for "Uncle Sam" which is staggering in its scope. Fish offers to dry clean gratis every American flag
in Youngstown regardless of size, for 15 days following May 1. He declares he wants every flag unfurled to the breeze on Decoration Day, immaculate if he can make them so.

RAILROADS BOOST DEMURRAGE RATE HUNDRED PER CENT

(Associated Press Telegram)

roads of the country and the chief shippers represented in the National Industrial Traffic League have agreed upon the 100 per cent increase in demurrage charges over the rate in effect prior to December 1 last when emergency rates were prescribed by the Interstate Commerce Commission. The new rates which will go into effect May 1 provide charges of $2 per day on each car detained for loading, after arrival at its destination for the first four days and $5 per day thereafter.

tion that after July 1, gas can no longer be supplied state institutions
in wholesale quantities at a special rate. The notice is given at this time that the state may prepare for the use of other fuel before next winter.

Gen. Groener, Director of

Fomented Strike

DECLARES ALL TROUBLE IS AMICABLY SETTLED

Workmen Will Not Be Allowed to Agitate Further Disturbances

(Associated Press Telegram)
Amsterdam, via London, April 27.
—General Groener, German director of munition supplies, in an address
remarkable for its conciliatory tone,
declared before the main committee
of the Reichstag that the workers who had gone on strike in Germany had been hypnotized and did not know what they were doing. General Groener said that even a strike which only lasted three hours was a bad thing but added that it was intelligible that the workmen should be depressed over the decreased
bread ration. He continued:

"They wanted to demonstrate to the government where it had failed.
It was a hypnotism of the masses.
The workmen who struck on Monday hardly knew why they had done
so, on Tuesday every one had returned to his senses and on Wednesday
a political change had come about.
We hold proofs that inflammatory matter was smuggled in from abroad."

"I demand that strikes cease in the future but on the other hand the workmen must have mouth-piece
through which they may make known their desires and complaints.
That purpose will be answered by the appointment of labor representatives on the food organization and they will have another mouthpiece
in the auxiliary service law."

"I will not tolerate an agitation
for a strike and if also will not tolerate an agitation against the rights guaranteed to the workmen by the auxiliary service law."

ITALY AND FRANCE GET NEXT WHACK AT BIG WAR FUND

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, April 27.—Loans by the United States government to France and Italy within the next fortnight, possibly within a week,
were indicated today as the outcome of the negotiations in progress between French and Italian representatives and treasury department officials.
The amounts of the loans have not been definitely determined but indications are that France will get approximately $100,000,000 and Italy
a smaller sum. The money would come from a further issue of treasury certificates of indebtedness. The issue of another block up to $250-000,000 is under consideration by Secretary McAdoo. Meantime Mr.
McAdoo is accepting belated subscriptions to the first issue of $250-000,000 already over-subscribed.

BALFOUR REPORTS TO LONDON GOVT. OF PROGRESS MADE

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, April 27.—Arthur
James Balfour, head of Great Britain's mission here, today sent to England his first report of the reception accorded the commission
and the progress of negotiations,
which it was stated on behalf of the commission, would be "very joyous news for the British people."
This, Mr. Balfour's first report, will be made public through the London official press bureau.
Mr. Balfour, it was stated, is eager to make the whole situation
a matter of popular knowledge and interest in both countries and to lay
not only before the two governments
but before the two peoples through the press, all possible details except,
of course, military and naval information.

Formal conference of the heads of the commission from which major announcements will be issued are not now expected. On the other hand there will be constant informal conferences of individuals charged with the various aspects of the situation at which no definite decision
may be reached at the moment. Every now and then, however, these conferences will result in an agreement which when approved will be made public so far as possible.

Lord Curzon, governor of the Bank of England, went to New York
today to confer with various bankers.
Lieutenant General Bridges had an appointment today to see Marshal
Joffre, of the French mission.
During the day Major General
Scott, chief of staff, and a number of his aides and associates in the department, planned to accompany Marshal Joffre to the war college.

DEEDS NAMED ON MUNITION BOARD BY PRES. WILSON

(Special to The Advocate)
Granville, April 27.—E. A. Deeds of Dayton, an alumnus and trustee of Denison university is a member of the munitions standardization board appointed by President Wilson and for the next six months will spend five days of each week in Washington. Mr. Deeds is a graduate trustee and liberal benefactor of Denison.

A treat for music lovers is anticipated in the violin recital to be given on Wednesday evening May 3, in the Recital Hall by Orley See of Indiana Pa. Mr. See has delighted many audiences in Granville, but the concert on Wednesday will surpass all his previous programs as he has studied constantly since leaving here.

JOHN BAIRD AGAIN LANDS POSITION AS FIRE MARSHAL

John Baird of Sixth street has been appointed an assistant state fire marshal by State Fire Marshal T. Alfred Fleming. Mr. Baird assumed his duties this morning and is now busily engaged in mapping out a campaign under the direction of his chief.

There were eleven applicants for the position captured by the Newark man; several in this country and others throughout the district, which embraces a number of counties. The competition was keen but Mr. Baird's previous record in office was a great factor in his favor, he having served two years under the former administration of Gov. James M. Cox.

Fire Marshal Baird is fully competent to discharge the arduous duties required of him and during his tenure of office he made a splendid official and was highly complimented on numerous occasions by his chief at that time, Hon. E. R. Deffenbaugh, for the admirable manner in which he handled the cases coming under his jurisdiction. His many friends will extend congratulations on his appointment.

Several new cars are seen on the college boulevards. R. D. Williamson is driving a new Studebaker and H. D. Ashbrook a New Oakland.

Miss Viola Kier of New York is expected to arrive in Granville on Sunday for a six weeks visit with her parents Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Kier.

Miss Elizabeth Morris whose engagement to Dr. George F. McKibben has been announced, was honor guest at a charming appointed luncheon given by Mrs. A. B. McMeen at her home in Lexington avenue, Columbus, a few days ago.

MANNING BROS. BUY SHOE STORE IN MERIDEN, CONN.

Manning Brothers, who conduct the Walk-Over shoe store in this city, have just purchased another big retail store at Meriden, Conn., making the fourth which they are operating, also having stores at Waterbury, Conn., and Reading, Pa. There are three brothers, Fred, David and Charles. The Meriden store is said to do an immense volume of business and the Manning Brothers will give the trade of that city the benefit of their wide experience and square dealing.

BERLIN EDITORS MAKE APPEAL TO WORKINGMEN NOT TO CUT OFF MUNITIONS FROM ARMY

Lishments and convert the workmen into soldiers.

"WORST ENEMY AMONG US."
(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Amsterdam, April 27, via London.

Berlin newspapers publish an appeal made by General Groener, director of munition supplies, which has been placed in all public places. He says:

"Our army needs arms and munitions. Did you not read Hindenburg's letter. How dare you defy him?"

"He will be a mean hound who does not work so long as the army stands opposite the enemy. The worst enemies are amongst us. There are small minded people and those who instigate a strike must be branded before the nation as traitors to the fatherland and to the army. Those who listen to their words are cowards."

"Who dares to stop when Hindenburg commands him to work. We are not far from the goal. The nation's existence is at stake."

There is caste even in war. The members of the Aviation Corps are expected to look down upon the crew of the submarine.

YOUR FOLKS can't drink premiums any more than they can eat NAILS

YOU can't get both good coffee and a premium. The price would be beyond reason. No premiums come with Golden Sun. It's fine and it's clean coffee. Every cup you make will be full-bodied, stimulating, gratifying, clear, of delicate aroma and delicious flavor. Its price is modest and, being cut by the exclusive Golden Sun process, it is chaffless, hence economical. Sold only by grocers—never by wagon men or peddlers.

FIRST VANATTA BOY TO ANSWER CALL TO DEFEND FLAG

Clyde E. Garrison, R. D. No. 1, Vanatta, who recently enlisted in the United States Navy has reached the U. S. naval training station at Norfolk, Va., and is delighted with his experience.

Mr. Garrison who will be 22 years of age on May 12 resigned a good position as a machinist in the motor factory at Bucyrus where he was earning $35 a month to answer his country's call and is said to be the first young man to "volunteer" from Vanatta route No. 1 in this county.

The young man's mother, Mrs. J. W. Garrison, is an invalid. Her heart was touched deeply when her youngest son expressed a desire to give his services and his life, if necessary, in defense of Old Glory, but she like all of the young man's many friends, is proud to know that he was willing and anxious to go when his country called. Young Mr. Garrison cast his first vote last fall and he is proud of the fact that he cast his ballot for Woodrow Wilson.

EXPECT ANOTHER EFFORT TO GAIN ARRAS HEIGHTS

in official circles. The Lokal Anzeiger, staunch organ of the junkers, admits that some of the strikers are still out and official reports to the Washington state department speak of 250,000 laborers in Berlin having quit work.

The seriousness of the economic situation in Germany is indicated by the action of Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg who appealed to the various German governments to punish strikers with the greatest possible severity. This follows on the heels of an announcement from Berlin that large numbers of men, previously exempt from military service are to be sent into the field. This announcement has added significance from the fact that one of the principal demands of the Berlin strike leaders was that one of their number should be punished by being drafted into the army.

In the meantime, interest has been quickened in the situation in Spain by a statement by the new premier, Marquis Prieto, asserting that neutrality was impossible where the honor or interests of a country were at stake. Germany's answer to Spain's latest note is expected within a few days and may decide the issue whether Berlin is to number the last remaining great neutral among her enemies. The Spanish note stated plainly that if Germany persisted in her present course she must not be surprised if Spain acted to defend her national interests.

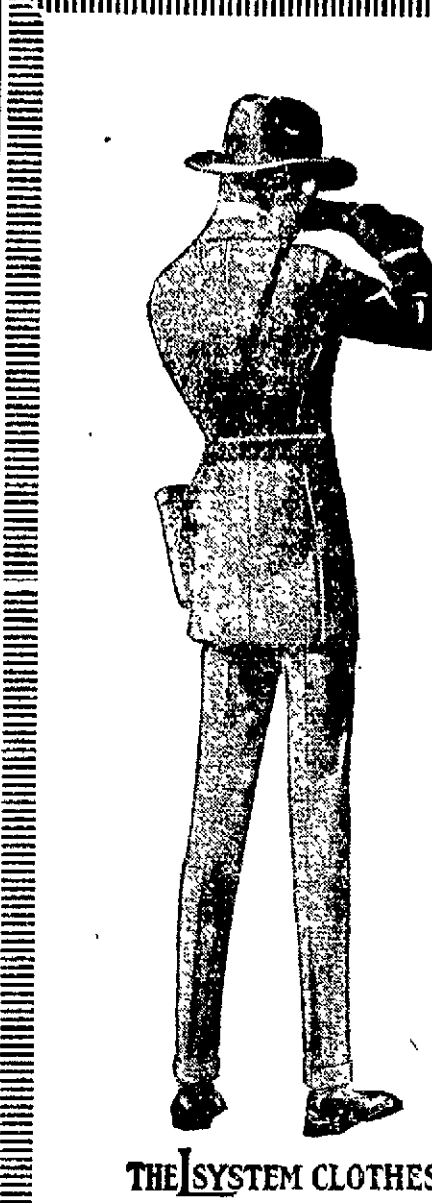

Having withdrawn all the violent attempts of the Germans to drive them from the commanding positions, they have taken on the Arras battle field, the British have again begun to force ahead.

General Haig's report today shows advances for his troops in two of the most important sectors of the front. On the two and a half mile between Roncy and Gueude important positions have been captured, driving the British into the Gueude line toward Roncy.

Lakeuse in the Monchy-Gueude position near the Cambrai road, further telling that the Germans have been made in the German defense.

The French troops along the Aisne front are also employing their initiative to good effect. Gains of ground in the French region where German possession of Craonne is being menaced, as reported by Paris today. The French position near Craonne, west of the Vandere river, also has been improved. The French likewise have advanced near Morchilles and elsewhere in the Champagne.

The British position in Mesopotamia continues to show marked progress. General Maude has followed the Tigris northward from Samarra from which they have retired several

RESERVE CORPS BLANKS RECEIVED BY MAYOR BIGBEE

Mayor R. C. Bigbee has received from the headquarters of the Officers' Reserve Corps at Chicago, a number of application blanks for applicants desirous of enlisting in training camps for service in either the infantry, cavalry, field artillery, coast artillery or engineers. The course will last three months, at the end of which time those competent and who pass the necessary requirements will be subject to appointment in the service from the Officers' Reserve Corps as may be tendered them by the secretary of war.

Admission of applicant depends on character and sobriety, personality, address and force, reputation, education and whether he is likely to command the respect of officers and enlisted men. Transportation to the camps will be furnished by the government and applicants will be required to deposit $20 for clothing and equipment which will be furnished them.

Mayor Bigbee stated that he would be pleased to have any young men who may be interested to call at his office and secure the information which he has on hand. Several local boys have already applied for admission to the training camps, fourteen of which will be established over the country.

WM. A. FLEMING FOR RECORDER

To whom this may concern:
As the people of Licking county all remember, I was a candidate at last August primaries for the nomination for County Recorder on the Democratic ticket. There were seven candidates in all and I stood second in the race. The contest was really between Mr. Dudgeon and myself. I have never held a county office nor held any clerkship in the Licking county court house. Now that Frank B. Dudgeon is gone and there will be a vacancy in the office, it does look to me that I should have the place. As soon, therefore, as our prosecuting attorney shall determine the appointing power, I shall, certainly, urge my claim.

Respectfully
WM. A. FLEMING.

SOCIALIST FROM GERMANY INCITES RUSSIAN PEOPLE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Petrograd, April 26, via London, April 27.—A small riot was precipitated last night when a crowd drove the audience of the Socialist League into the street as a protest against his exhortations for a cessation of the war and his attacks on the provisional government. A score of Lenin's followers were arrested but the agitator himself remains at liberty.

Lenine, who recently returned from exile through Germany, has become the leader of a faction of Socialists who seemingly desire the cessation of the war regardless of the consequences to Russia. He is living in the palace of the famous dancer, Kabeshinska, a former favorite of the emperor, from the balconies of which he daily and nightly harangues his followers. It is generally assumed that he is the pay of Germany and at any rate his return, facilitated as it was by the German government, leaves little doubt in the minds of the great majority of Russians that he is working for the interests of a separate peace at the expense of Germany. His activity is feared by the government, which permits that his arrest would make him a martyr and that he is less harmful at liberty.

PATRIOT PAYS A BIG INCOME TAX BEFORE IT IS DUE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
New York, April 27.—Some patriotic American with a fortune in excess of $4,000,000 has paid his income tax six weeks in advance, thereby losing $3,750 in interest. The taxpayer's name is withheld in accordance with the law but the fact that he has handed a check for more than $500,000 to the collector of internal revenue here was made public today.

GERMANY CLAIMS U-BOAT WARFARE IS SUCCEEDING

Berlin, April 27, via London, April 27.—A confidential statement in regard to the progress of submarine warfare has been made by Vice Admiral von Capelle, minister of navy, to the Reichstag main committee in the discussion of the naval budget. An official statement regarding the minister's communication was given out here today showing that the submarines continued to be great and their losses small. Reports already at hand showed that a favorable result could be expected for the month of April. The reduction of tonnage at the disposal of the hostile nations, he said, was taking place with mathematical certainty, thereby increasing the lack of foodstuffs while the want of pit props had made itself felt in the sharpest manner.

DEPENDENT ALIENS TO BE CARED FOR BY THE LABOR DEPT.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, April 27.—Secretary Wilson today gave consideration to uniform regulations governing care of dependent aliens throughout the country, recommended by a conference here yesterday of representatives named by governors of eastern states. Legislation will be introduced to give the labor department funds to care for alien defectives and others at present charges of the states.

ANTI SALOON LEAGUE OPPOSES HIGHER MALT TAX

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Columbus, April 27.—Every friend in Congress will be urged to talk and work against the proposal to increase the taxation on malt and spirituous liquors as a war measure, according to a statement given out today by J. A. White, superintendent of the Ohio Anti-Saloon League.
"Those who believe in the righteousness of the dry cause," according to Mr. White, "would rather bear an added burden of taxation if that is necessary than have brewers and distillers placed in the position of vantage given in return for extraordinary aid to the nation."
"This was the tactical error during the Civil war and it has taken 50 years to convince the government that brewers and distillers were not entitled to extraordinary protection as a result of their contribution to the war revenues," said White. Dry workers of Ohio are urged by Superintendent White to write their congressmen to oppose the proposition.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
San Francisco, April 27.—The Apache Indians of the Fort Huachuca reservation, who are the tribe for a great "dance dance" there tomorrow night.
The dance, it is said, will take the form of a preparatory demonstration, the Apaches vowing allegiance to the government by dancing away the evil spirits from the country and pleading with the Great Spirit to great abundant crops.

STAR ATHLETES ENTER U. OF P. COLLEGE CONTESTS

Philadelphia, April 27.—With one of the most representative lists of entries in its history, keen competition with the smashing of records was expected at the 2nd annual relay race carnival of the University of Pennsylvania which opened at Franklin Field today. Despite the war virtually all the star college athletes of the track and field in America were entered in the various events of the two days' meet. Several of the larger institutions withdrew their teams after they decided to discontinue athletic activity but nearly all of them were represented by individuals. More than 100 college teams, 50 school teams and scores of individuals were entered.

RAILROADS WILL HANDLE COAL AND ORE FREIGHT FIRST

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, April 27.—Coal and iron ore hereafter will be given preference in movement over other freight, under orders received today by railroads from the Council of National Defense's general railroad board, as a means of assuring adequate supplies of the two materials on which industrial war preparations most depend. Railroad presidents were charged individually with the responsibility of carrying out the orders under threat of disciplinary measures in case of failure.

This is the first important step taken by the board since its organization two weeks ago with Fairfax Harrison, president of the Southern at its head, and including five other railroad presidents. Its aim is to coordinate the work of all railroads in virtually a single continental system for war needs.

To relieve car shortages, the car service commission of the American Railway association also issued orders requiring immediate movement of coal and ore cars when empty toward owner lines.

YOUNG PEOPLE OF PRESBYTERY MEET MAY 4TH AT UTICA

On May 3 and 4 the forty-third annual meeting of the Woman's and Young People's Presbyterian society of the Zanesville Presbytery will be held in Utica.

The program will open Thursday morning at 9:30 o'clock, with Mrs. W. D. Fulton of Columbus leading the devotionals and Mrs. C. H. Oxley of Newark will give the response to the greetings.

Among the Newark women on the program are Miss Genevieve Forry who will give the report of the young people's hours, and Mrs. Calvin Hazlett who will install the officers during the business session Friday morning.

GERARD SPEAKS.

Speaking at the annual dinner of the American Newspaper Publishers Association in New York last night, James W. Gerard, former Ambassador to Germany, made an impassioned appeal for universal military service. Mr. Gerard said that it is the only thing which can save the nation from Prussian militarism. He called on every publisher present to Advocate the passage of the selective conscription bill. By so doing, he said, "you gentlemen will break a lance for the cause of freedom. We can't go into this war with velvet gloves. We have got to have this bill."

Germany is from 100 to 200 years behind the times in liberty and democracy, Gerard asserted. "There may be riots there," he said, "but there will be no revolution."

Mr. Gerard is perhaps as well informed on conditions in Germany as any other American. He speaks with authority.

Action is what is now needed in America. Congressmen should not now consider what measures will be most popular with the nation at large but should support such measures as will be effective and the most effective way to prosecute this war will be that which puts each man at the task where he can be of the greatest value to his country. Selective conscription does not mean that all men of certain age must go to the front. It means that the burden will be equitably distributed and recognizes the importance of assignments for farm, factory and office work as well as service in the field or at the front. In passing upon such important measures as the army bill, congressmen should consider the welfare of their country instead of thinking about their own re-election.

CENSORSHIP.

Two kinds of newspaper censorship are under consideration in legislation that is before congress. One kind is very necessary. It is to conceal military and naval information, movements of troops and vessels, etc. There are a few newspapers so keen after scoops and dollars that they would not hesitate to use such news unless there were severe penalties. Also many conscientious journalists will feel that just so long as the government imposes no prohibition, they are free to use the news. The American press as a whole does not care to become a publicity bureau for our enemies.

A wholly different kind of censorship is seen when public officials attempt to shelter themselves from adverse opinion and discussion, they shrink from censure, and regard critics as biased, uninformed, irresponsible, and mercenary. There are a great many public officials in both state and national governments, who would like a censorship in both peace and war times, and who at all times take occasion to suppress newspaper debate of their doings. They may sincerely feel they are doing the best they can and that adverse comment accomplishes nothing.

The country will never submit to any limitation of free discussion in peace or war. Of course a great deal of criticism is mere fault finding, the effort of self seekers to make themselves prominent, and of space writers to make more money. But still keen minded and common

WHAT IS A. B. C.?

The Audit Bureau of Circulations, better known as the A. B. C., of which The Advocate is a member, holds its fourth annual convention in Chicago, June 1.

Founded on the mutual desire of advertisers and publishers for truth in circulation, and to raise the circulation standard, the success and growth of the A. B. C. has been little less than phenomenal. Its membership is now over two hundred, composed of the country's leading publishers, advertising agents and publishers of newspapers, magazines and other publications. The total circulation represented is over sixty million and one hundred million dollars is spent annually for advertising by its space-buying members, not to mention other space buyers, both local and foreign, who use A. B. C. Standard Circulation Reports as a basis for their appropriations.

It has placed the buying of circulation on the same basis as the purchase of a ton of coal, or any other commodity.

In the three years of its existence the Bureau has issued approximately ten thousand publishers' sworn statements and two thousand audit reports, constituting a reliable and authentic circulation service of inestimable value. Thirty-six trained circulation auditors are now in the field making examinations and reports.

An auditor dropped into The Advocate office the latter part of March coming unannounced just as a bank examiner calls without notice to inspect a bank. For several days he was engaged in inspecting The Advocate's records, including receipts, paper bills, receipts, postage bills, bank and office records, mailing lists, subscribers records, checking and rechecking and verifying records in every way. The office records are so kept that an account is made of all copies printed sold or otherwise distributed.

The sworn statement of The Advocate testifies to a daily average paid circulation of 6126 copies during the six months ending April 1, 1917. The actual circulation is greater by several hundred copies but the A. B. C. limits its credit to the circulation paid for in cash at regular rates.

A. B. C. Standard Circulation service is accepted everywhere as the best and most authoritative circulation information available. As an example, the Federal Trade Commission, at Washington, has just officially requested the Bureau's latest reports on all its newspaper members, to be used in connection with its investigation of the newspaper situation.

The Bureau is a thoroughly democratic organization, each member having a voice in its conduct. The president is Louis Bruch, vice-president of the American Radiator Company and one of its directors and treasurer is Howwell L. Rogers, president of the American Newspaper Publishers' Association.

Advertisers and publishers in other countries have been watching the growth of the A. B. C. idea with great interest, and information has been received that both England and Sweden contemplate similar organization in the near future. One of the leading newspapers in Cuba has also asked for an A. B. C. audit of its circulation and several South American countries have asked for information.

THE RED CROSS.

The American National Red Cross, a branch of which is now being organized in Newark, has started its great drive for funds to support the relief work resulting from the participation of the nation in the war in Europe. Cleveland H. Dodge, of New York, has been chosen to head the Red Cross Emergency Finance Committee.

The coming campaign promises to develop the mightiest outpouring of money ever contributed by Americans to a single philanthropic purpose. Its culmination will be "Red Cross Day" soon to be proclaimed by President Wilson. If the fund behind the organization is large enough, besides taking care of the hospital and home relief needs of America and Red Cross will provide a general hospital and relief service for the Allies.

Headquarters for the Newark Chapter of the Red Cross will be opened very soon at No. 16 Arcade. Everybody's membership is solicited. The fee is one dollar.

THE BREAK WITH TURKEY.

Turkey, like Austria, ruled from Berlin, severs diplomatic relations with the United States as an expression of disapproval of America's declaration of belligerence. Neither Turkey nor Austria has formally declared war. Neither nation has any excuse for such action, other than their admission of complete subservience to Germany.

It will be remembered that after Italy's declaration of war against Austria the German government refrained from rushing to its ally's support. For a year after Italy's entry in the war Italy and Germany remained at peace. The final break was not made by Germany but by Italy at the insistence of the other belligerent powers. Germany, in fact, did all she could to maintain the status of official friendship with the nation which was hammering the Austrian tool and ally.

The show-up on the other foot when the United States breaks with Germany. Berlin demands that the Prussian-dominated nations of the central alliance fall immediately into line. And what Berlin demands is not only that they do so, but that they do so by Vienna and Sofia. The only concession to logic and to appearances is found in the fact that Germany does not insist on an actual declaration of war.

The severing of diplomatic relations with Turkey may result in hardship and peril to Americans unfortunate enough to be present in the Sultan's domains. Ambassador Ellis has left, ill with typhus, and difficulty in getting out of the country. In Beirut, Constantinople and elsewhere are Americans engaged in education work, and they must be for some time beyond the reach of American aid.

This has been the fate of the people of every country that has entered the war. Those so unfortunate as to be in a hostile land at the time of the declarations of war have necessarily suffered more or less severely. It is the intention of the United States to make the lot of hostile aliens within its borders as easy as possible. That similar consideration will be shown Turkey is scarcely to be expected, but there is reason to hope that there will be no positive mistreatment of Americans, even if war is formally declared. Up to the present time Turkey has supplied little or no ground of complaint as to her treatment of prisoners of war or of interned foreigners. Turkish malignity has generally been confined to Turkey's own subject peoples.

ABLE BODIED NON-PRODUCERS.

Out on the farms our agriculturists are deploring the shortage of help. Yet we have a vast army of sound and able bodied men performing useless tasks. Take the book agent for example. Any person who wants or needs a book can order it of the nearest news dealer, or visit the nearest store, or write to any publisher. He can do this in much less time than it takes to deal with a loquacious book agent, from whom one usually buys what he never knew he needed, or something which he rarely needs after he gets it.

Other house to house agents and peddlers come in the same class. There is a small army of men picking up a precarious living by selling patent household appliances and clothing from door to door. Many of these things are absolute frauds. Others if useful can be bought at the nearest store. You have to pay the agent a very high commission, probably a third on an average. It is wasteful, absolutely non-productive.

And yet we are conducting a war with the greatest military power on earth and there is a question if we are able to feed ourselves and our allies on account of shortage of labor. It would seem funny if it were not so deplorable.

MINIMUM PRICE PROBLEM.

(Pittsburgh Dispatch.)

The judgment of George W. Perkins that the Government should establish minimum prices on all foods seems to go well with the conclusion of Herbert Hoover, whose advice is considered invaluable because of his experience in Europe, but many require long and amiable methods of persuasion to secure free consent of American farmers. Mr. Perkins has transmitted to Secretary Houston of the Department of Agriculture the main points of his work in New York with his conclusions, chief of which is that a minimum price policy is imperative, and he seems to have in mind a minimum price that will meet the views of small waged city consumers more than farmers. For instance, he proposes, as an illustration, a rate of $1 a bushel for the season's potatoes, noting that at current prices it will cost farmers about 60 cents per bushel to raise potatoes, so that $1 per bushel will give producers a small profit, possibly less than they may demand.

Mr. Perkins informs the Secretary of Agriculture that he was in touch with farmers for some time on this point and finds them quite willing to co-operate. Official agencies will furnish protection of farmers' interests to prevent exploitation of farmers and consumers. Mr. Perkins thinks farmers will do all that is asked of them, and agrees that under the circumstances, with speculation as a possibility, men on the farms are justified in requiring Governmental evidence that the farmers will not be exploited and that there be no possible chance that crops of extraordinary proportions find their way into the hands of speculators, big or little.

The possibility of a food dictatorship under direction of the Government is outlined in the conditions which Mr. Hoover cites as demanding the removal of every chance that every pound of food will not be utilized to the highest advantage. Mr. Hoover frankly says if America fails to feed the Allies the war will be lost, and in the presence of such a stake a dictatorship is the safest means of assuring elimination of waste and speculation. He has not put himself on record as to prices, but the lowest retail costs are so essential that he probably accepts them as a matter of course.

SHORT CUT TO PEACE.

(Ohio State Journal.)

The only way for Germany to win this war is for the Kaiser to abdicate and take away the whole Hohenzollern claspnet with him. What a great nation Germany will be when the people themselves are the government and depend upon themselves for their national glories! The allies haven't anything against them. If the fight were against the German people as a people the United States wouldn't be in it. But this country is against a system, a dynastic system, that has always been in a war of some kind. We want it to get out and lay out. That will of itself amount to a league of peace, when nations shall beat their swords into plowshares and their spears into pruning hooks, and shall learn war no more. But that happy vision will fade away as long as the Kaiser controls Germany.

Our Wooden Walls.
England was saved by her "wooden walls" when in 1588 the great Spanish Armada undertook to crush her sea power. "Wooden walls"

"WELL, WHEN DO WE START?"

may save England once more, in the age of steel. Wooden ships built in the United States, may foil the German submarine armada, preserve American commerce and keep England from starvation and defeat. It is a picturesque thing, appealing strongly to the imagination—this plan of the United States government to build 1,000 wooden ships of 3,000 tons burden to use in foreign commerce, replacing the tonnage sunk by U-boats. Wood or steel, what matter? The wooden craft will be steamships, making fair speed. They will be nearly as safe as steel hulls, and last as long. They may not look so fine, but they will carry freight, and that's what ships are for. Thus the seas will soon be swarming with American ships and bright with the Stars and Stripes.—Montana Record-Herald.

The Scorpion.

Let us not misjudge the act of Turkey in interfering the United States gunboat Scorpion at Constantinople. In itself this is not an act of war, any more than our internment of the German cruiser long ago was an act of war. It is the usual thing, provided the Scorpion was given a chance to sail as soon as the United States became a belligerent; this is reported to have been the case.—Boston Post.

Foods That Will Keep.

The thing to do is to concentrate the country's agricultural energies in the planting of spring wheat, corn, potatoes, onions and cabbages. These are all valuable food crops, the prices of which were boosted in the retail markets during last winter. They are all foods which can be stored and kept for months. Corn is the most important of the grain crops, as it is transmitted into pork, beef and poultry. If the farmers of the United States can produce 3,500,000,000 bushels of corn this year, it will much more than make up for a 50,000,000-bushel shortage in wheat, as it will exceed the record corn yield of 1912 by nearly 400,000,000 bushels. And, possibly, there will be, after all, no wheat shortage.—Baltimore Star.

Did You Know?
That Samuel Finley Breese Morse was born at Charlestown, April 27, 1797? He graduated at Yale in 1810 and went to England to study painting under Benjamin West. In 1813 he received the gold medal of the Adelphi Society of Arts for his first effort in sculpture, the "Dying Hercules." Returning to New York in 1815, he became the first president of the National Academy of Design. He was interested in chemistry as well as painting and especially in electrical and galvanic experiments; and on a voyage from Havre to New York in 1822 he conceived the idea of a magnetic telegraph which he exhibited to congress in 1837 and vainly attempted to patent in England. He struggled on with scanty means till 1847, when, as he almost yielded to despair, Congress, at midnight and at the last moment of the session, appropriated $20,000 for an experimental line between Washington and Baltimore. For his important telegraphic invention Dr. Morse was rewarded by testimonials, honorary orders of nobility, and wealth. The magnitude of his discoveries being universally acknowledged, several European states joined in presenting him with a purse of 400,000 francs. He died in New York April 2, 1872.

THE JOB HUNTER.

How to Face Work Without Any False Pride.

A very good piece of advice, which, however curious it may sound, should be impressed on all women who are trying to find employment is, "Do not be a lady."

There is a vast distinction between being a lady and being a gentleman. The word "lady" is most misused and in its present day application it stands greatly in the way of those who are seeking work and who, time after time, despite the failure to gain employment that its use entails. Remember that good, hard, honest work is never lowering. If you are a gentleman by birth and nature you will be as much a lady when you are scrubbing the floor as when you are receiving guests in the drawing room.

Numbers of women refuse good positions because they consider themselves too ladylike to undertake the work involved. The aim of hundreds of girls today is to be described as "young lady." To achieve this they prefer to work for long hours in a shop or typewriting office at rates of pay which only with a hard struggle provide food, lodging and clothes, rather than take a better paid and far more comfortable situation as a domestic, and all because they think that domestic work is beneath them.

The modern young woman in many cases will wait for weeks on the chance of finding a position as lady companion or lady housekeeper, and yet when it comes to hard facts she is serving her employer just as much in one situation as in the other. Whoever works for another is a servant, and from the highest to the lowest we all serve in some way or another.

If women would only take this matter to heart and cease struggling after a false social position they would find life much easier, and many of the serious problems of the labor market would be easily solved.

Keeping Wicker Clean.

Many a housekeeper has discovered the difficulty of dusting wicker chairs. No amount of careful rubbing or flicking of the feather duster can reach far into these crevices; there the dust collects and there it ordinarily stays. But not long ago a woman—and a very busy one at that—hit upon a new plan for cleaning her wicker chairs. One by one she carried them into the bathtub and turned the spray upon them. The penetrating stream of water pierced them through and through, and after the process was complete each chair fairly shone with freshness and cleanliness. "If housewives could know the amount of dirt and dust that I succeeded in washing out of my three chairs," said the woman in question, "they would not hesitate long to follow my example and pop them into the bathtub."

To Keep the Blankets Clean.

No matter how careful one is to cover cold creamed hands with gloves before retiring, the top of the blanket is quick to become soiled. But there is a way to check its progress along this line. Bind the blanket with a piece of heavy cheesecloth or with muslin a yard in width. This will allow eighteen inches on each side of the blanket. If the material is held on with slip stitches it can be easily removed when it is necessary to send it to the laundry.

Our Naval Chronometers.

With a view to providing the exact time for chronometers used on warships, the navy department has a master clock in a vault under the Naval observatory, where the temperature is never allowed to vary more than the hundredth part of a degree. This evenness of temperature is ensured by means of a thermostat and a small electric stove. When the temperature rises the two-hundredth part of a degree above normal the thermostat automatically turns off the stove. When it falls below normal the stove starts working again. Sometimes the electric bulb is switched off and on again over a dozen times a minute. Before being dispatched from the observatory all chronometers are kept under close scrutiny in a room hung around with wet cloths. This is done so as to accustom them as far as possible to the conditions of moisture which prevail at sea.

A Dissected Plateau.

Standing on a hilltop almost anywhere in New England on a clear day and looking around at the horizon one notices that the high level surfaces of one hill after another approach the plane of the circular sky line. It requires but little imagination to recognize in the successive hilltops the remains of the even and continuous surface of what was once a great plain, from which the valleys of today have been carved by the erosive action of flowing water. This is most easily recognized from a considerable elevation, especially in the broad upland high level areas of western Massachusetts at Whitecomb hills, on the Mohawk trail. This is termed a dissected plateau.—Geological Survey Bulletin.

Milady's Boudoir

Feet in the Springtime. In the spring milady's pedal extremities lightly turn to aches and pains. With the approach of warm weather you begin to pay with interest for the indiscretions of the winter months.

In warm weather you should wash your feet twice a day. You will understand how necessary cleanliness really is when you realize that the largest blood vessels of the body are situated in the legs. Consequently the feet perspire, and this perspiration causes a vast amount of the foot discomfort from which folks suffer, including soft corns between the toes. The odor of perspiration is an unpardonable offense, not alone because of the pain it causes you yourself, but of the discomfort to those with whom you are associated.

There is absolutely no excuse for this annoyance. To keep your feet absolutely clean and sweet requires not more than 10 minutes effort a day and the use of an inexpensive powder if you trouble is serious enough to require it.

Mild cases of perspiration are benefited by bathing the feet in water, as hot as can be borne to which a teaspoon of common baking soda has been added. Another good wash is one or two drams of alum dissolved in a pint of alcohol and added to your footbath in the same proportion—a teaspoonful to a basin of water.

In cases of excessive perspiration bathe your feet in hot salt water. Dry them carefully and apply the following lotion: One grain of permanganate of potash, and one ounce of distilled water. Apply this lotion with a piece of soft gauze. Then dust your feet with a talcum powder.

Change your stockings at least once a day and if you are troubled with excessive perspiration change them twice a day until a remedy has been entirely effected.

Springtime Blemishes. Pimples and pock marks, the inconspicuous Springtime combination is not an attractive sight, but alas! we see many of 'em! In order to wear the delicate finery that youth craves, we should first get our complexion into that "peaches and cream" condition of which the poets sing.

Various reasons are assigned for pimples and blotches. They may indicate internal disorders, due to impoverished blood, impaired digestion, unwholesome food, lack of proper hygiene, impure toilet articles, "nerves" and so on. A little bit of scouting will, as a rule determine the cause of the unsightly blemishes. Carbolic and sulphur soaps will be found very beneficial to irritated skins. They cleanse, soothe and heal. Many toilet soaps on the market contain properties that have an injurious action on the skin, they dry out the natural oils, leaving the skin wrinkled, harsh and inflamed.

After the skin is thoroughly rinsed with cold water; dry carefully and powder with carbonated talc. When the pimples come to a "head," instead of squeezing out the contents, sterilize a needle by holding in a flame until red hot. Place an end of a towel around the pimple and press gently, pat with a bit of absorbent cotton and touch with peroxide of hydrogen applied with absorbent cotton rolled on the end of a match stick. This destroys the germs, removes the impurities and enables it to heal easily. After half an hour, apply a little witch hazel or medicated ointment.

Our Boys and Girls

The early evening is story-time for the very reason that children are then so tired that a restful pose and a fairy tale are about as near to heavenly bliss as anyone will ever reach in this world. How unspeakably cruel to deprive the tots of this great pleasure.

Toward the end of the day the normal child is in a condition of physical exhaustion and if we could examine its brain cells we would find them so changed as to be unable to stand any great strain. It is well known fact that in such a condition any effort to learn is either impossible or accomplished at an undue expense of energy, resulting in pathological exhaustion which sleep does not relieve. The child becomes neurasthenic in time, and when it neglects its school work is called a bad scholar.

For any except the most remarkable minds—minds which require wistful corners and melancholy brooding to develop the winged fancies which some day startle the world—solitude is bad for the bashful child and even the genius might be benefitted by wholesome intercourse with more ordinary class.

Little parties should be arranged in which this small self-exiled soul is allowed to have a sweet and joyous part. He must be sent to dancing school, if this is possible at an early age, and be dressed as well as other children of his years. He must be encouraged to tell his little stories around the lamp at home and not be laughed at if they are more fanciful or less entertaining than the other children's tales.

He must be helped everywhere to walk alone, but never with ostentatious sign that the others are conscious of his defects, for this parade of care would be all the more humiliating to him. This will do a world of good in helping him unconsciously to forget himself and the horror of bashfulness ever before him.

AUDITORIUM.

"The Argyle Case."
Sex problems and vampires may have their day, but for a theme of universal interest to the millions of motion picture patrons there is nothing like an absorbing murder mystery, which a great detective for a hero and a lovely and persecuted young girl for a heroine. Of all the detective dramas of recent years none created such a sensation as "The Argyle Case," which has now been adapted for the screen as a Selznick-Picture production and will be shown at the Auditorium theatre today and tomorrow, with Robert Warwick as the star.

A program of class is what Mgr. Fenberg will offer at the Auditorium today and tomorrow. As an extra added feature the Fox two reel comedy "His Ticklish Job" with Hank Mann will be seen. The displays tonight start at 6:30 and 8:30, a full two-hour show being seen.

"The New York Peacock."
Valeska Suratt has again gone back to nature for designs for new hats and gowns. Not long ago it was the butterfly. Now it is the spider. She has designed a spider web hat and dress.

Miss Suratt, the empress of fashions, will be seen at Manager Fenberg's playhouse, the Auditorium on Sunday in "The New York Peacock," said to be a most interesting Fox feature of New York life, in which the dizzy, swirling, ruinous White Light of that great City is shown. In Miss Suratt's support is seen the handsomest man in pictures, Harry Hillard. This feature together with the two reel Mutual special, featuring Charlie Chaplin, called "The Pawnshop" and Miss Maude DeVaul, who will be heard in songs, will make up a program all will want to see.

"The Smarter Set."
The "Smarter Set," better known as the Smart Set, the big colored organization playing only to theatre audiences, will be the attraction at the Auditorium soon in "How New-Town Prepared." This company has as its comedian Sam Butt Whitney and J. Homer Tutt, who are undoubtedly the leaders in the fun-making line of the present day, together with thirty other people making it one of the most complete organizations in the theatrical world. Particular attention has been paid to the selecting of well trained voices, and the rendition of high class selections by Blanche Thompson have met with flattering success.

The Coburn Players.
This year's production of The Coburn Players are even more complete and authoritative in a historical sense than ever. A decade of experience in presenting historic and classic drama, with constant elaboration of ideas and the result of incessant study, have made the Coburn offerings justly noted for consistent accuracy and historical correctness in all the appurtenances of the plays. Jewels, weapons and costumes—all the properties, in fact—are made under the personal supervision of Mr. and Mrs. Coburn in their New York studios and every care is taken that they shall be correct to the utmost detail, according to the highest authority. Coming soon to the Auditorium.

ALHAMBRA.

Tonight and Tomorrow.
That ever popular portrayal of Latin characters, George Beban, who scored such a success in "Peas-a-que" as the Italian, and in "His Sweetheart" and other productions, will be seen at the Alhambra tonight and tomorrow in the Pallas-Paramount production of "The Bond Between." Mr. Beban is the author of the story as well as the star of the production. There is no actor on the American stage or screen who so well knows the Latin temperament and characteristics as does Mr. Beban.

Sunday.
Ambitious young men who would become motion picture stars might do well to take a tip from Bryant Washburn, the Essanay leading man, now appearing in "Skinner's Dress Suit." Mr. Washburn is one of the youngest celebrities on the screen, and yet he has climbed to the forefront of his career. How? Here is his recipe for success:
"Work, work and work some more," says the star; "don't ever get discouraged; don't ever think you cannot get there; don't ever fail to do your best, whether it is in a small part or a big one. Then, maybe, remember, I say, 'maybe,' you will succeed. At any rate, you will never have a possible chance to do so unless you work, work and work some more."

GRAND.

Helen Helmes.
"The Railroad Raiders" affords Miss Helmes opportunity to display her remarkable genius for adventurous, dramatic roles. Much of it is night life, for "The Railroad Raiders" do their raiding at night, and those plays are palpitant with the rushing of brilliantly lighted trains through Stygian darkness, the magic of the telegraph key, the sleepless vigilance of the railway detectives and the sinister secrecy of the raiders' gang. Miss Helmes has looked death in the face many times. She has been ditched with a hundred and twenty ton Mogul engine, hurled over a cliff in an automobile, splash into fifty feet of water; tossed from the fourth story of a burning building into a net; tied to the driving rods of a locomotive running at top speed; buried under debris by a premature explosion of dynamite; thrown from the roof of a freight car into a river, and pinned under the wreckage of a motor car after a head-on collision so that it required a dozen machinists to dig her out. See the first episode at the Grand next Sunday.

WOMEN MOBILIZE TO PRODUCE FOOD FROM THE LAND

Above, Miss Kathryn Freeman and Miss Freda Lane operating a tractor on farm of N. Y. State School of Agriculture at Farmingdale, L. I. Below, Miss Freeman running a seed machine, and Miss Alice Carpenter.

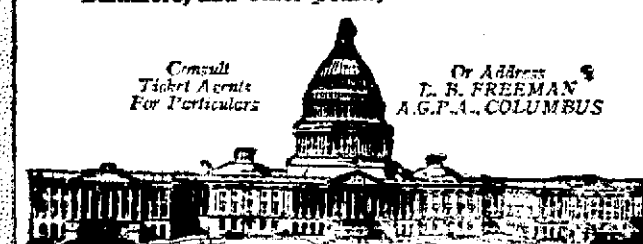

The call of the government to produce more food is being answered by women as well as men throughout the country. Patriotic women realize that by doing farm work they can serve their country as ably as their brothers who enlist for war service. In New York Miss Alice Carpenter is leading the movement to teach agriculture to women. This will be done on a big scale this summer at Farmingdale, L. I.

LITTLE LILLIAN
ROMAINE FISHER
CAN TALK AGAIN

This attractive little lady is the two year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Fisher, 238 North St., Harrisburg, Pa. Last winter she had an attack of measles, together with a very severe cold. Just at that time Dr. J. J. Wilhelm presented Mr. Fisher with a jar of the Southern "outside" treatment—Vick's VapoRub Salve, which was just then being introduced in Harrisburg, and requested that he give this preparation a thorough trial. Mr. Fisher writes—
"I must say that our baby had such a cold on her chest and in her throat that she could hardly talk, and we could not get her to take anything internally. After we used Vick's VapoRub Salve on her breast and throat at night before going to bed she was entirely relieved."
No family should be without this preparation. It is externally applied, and so can be used freely—it is absorbed through and penetrates the skin, and, in addition, is inhaled as a vapor. It has a hundred uses for the many minor ailments for which every mother is the doctor. Three sizes, 25c, 50c or $1.00.

CATCHING UP ON HER SEWING NOW

Lancaster Woman Able to Tend to Home Duties Again.

WORKS IN FACTORY, TOO.

"I work all day at the Hocking flint glass plant and then sew until 10 o'clock almost every night."
This remark, made by Mrs. Alva Roser, who lives on West Fair avenue, Lancaster, shows what a woman can do when she feels well. Mrs. Roser was telling how she had been helped by Tanlac. Only a few weeks ago Mrs. Roser was just about ready to give up. She was away behind with her sewing, and her work at the glass factory was a great task because she was so run down. Her story is told best in her own words.
"I suffered from headaches," said Mrs. Roser. "My nerves were bad. The slightest noise made me jump, and then my head would ache. For three years I couldn't sleep soundly. I often had dizzy spells and had to catch on to something to keep from falling. My appetite was poor, and nothing I ate tasted good. I seemed to have a bad taste in my mouth most of the time."
"In the mornings I usually got up tired. By 10 o'clock I felt as though I ought to be noon. In the evenings I was completely tired out."
"About six weeks ago I read a statement about Tanlac. It was made by a woman I know, and I knew she would not make a false statement. So I tried a bottle of Tanlac. Almost from the first I began to improve. My meals tasted better, and the headaches left me. However, it was not until I started on the second bottle that I noticed any great difference. Then it was that I began to take on weight. I did not feel so tired in the mornings. As I continued to take Tanlac I got stronger and stronger. I am feeling fine now. After my day's work I take pleasure in sewing. Often I sew as late as 10 o'clock. I'm catching up with my sewing that I had to neglect so long because I was so tired. I generally went to bed about half past seven."
"Tanalac has been a blessing to me." Tanlac may be obtained in Newark at W. A. Erman's drug store and in the following nearby towns: Alexandria, C. M. Gilmore; Pataskala, J. R. Strine; Granville, W. P. Ullman; Hebron, Hebron Drug Co.—Advertisement.

SUPERIOR GUNS
OF BRITISH ARMY
SPELL SUCCESS

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
London, April 27.—The outstanding feature of the second phase of the battle of Arras is the definite establishment of superiority in artillery by the British, and it is due to this superiority that they have been able to maintain a successful offensive, said Major General F. B. Maurice, chief director of military operations at the war office, in his weekly talk with the Associated Press, Thursday.
General Maurice declared the Germans had drawn on their strategic reserve and brought up great new forces in an attempt to stem the onslaught, but that the British machine was working without a hitch. The German losses had been terrific and thousands of dead Germans, he said, were lying in front of the British lines.
In the 18 days of the Arras battle, General Maurice continued, the British casualties had been something less than half what they were in the corresponding period of the Somme offensive, while the numbers of prisoners and guns captured by the British forces were much greater than in the same period on the Somme.
Another important feature of the fighting, said the general, is the fact that the British have definitely established their superiority in the air.

BRIDGES HOPING TO SEE YANKEES
ON FIRING LINE

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
New York, April 27.—The annual convention of the American Newspaper Publishers' Association will close today and the members will return to their homes throughout the United States inspired by messages direct from the battlefields of Europe. At their annual dinner last night the editors and publishers listened to an address by Major General G. T. M. Bridges of the British war commission, who fought at the Marne under Joffre and will return to the front in France at the end of his mission here.
General Bridges expressed the hope that American troops soon would be fighting beside their allies in Europe. The greatest asset of the allies in the war, he said, is the fact that they are fighting for ideals. The aid of the United States was doubly welcome because it will strike for the cause of liberty.
N. W. Rowell, a member of the Ontario legislature, who fought with the Canadian contingent, declared that in the battle of the Marne Joffre had broken the tradition of German military supremacy and thereby saved civilization.
A plea for conscription and for the passage of the army bill was made by James W. Gerard, former ambassador to Germany. Mr. Gerard arraigned Speaker Champ Clark for his advocacy of the volunteer system and expressed thanks that "some beneficent Providence which keeps the American people from putting forward their near-statesmen" intervened in 1912 to prevent Mr. Clark from getting the Democratic nomination for President. "I was one of the financial supporters of Mr. Clark's campaign," said Mr. Gerard, "and in the light of events I am not sorry that he was beaten."

NEGRO SEGREGATION
IS ARGUED BEFORE
U. S. SUPREME COURT

Washington, April 27.—Validity of many cities negro segregation ordinances was argued today before the supreme court.
The test case heard was that upon the constitutionality of a Louisville, Ky., ordinance establishing residence zones for white and blacks. Baltimore, Richmond, St. Louis and many other cities have similar ordinances, whose fate depends upon the court's decision in the present case. Attorneys representing city authorities, improvement organizations and negro societies, including some counsel of national repute appeared.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
Rome, via Paris, April 27.—Although the Italian mission to the United States has not yet been officially appointed, its chief members have already been decided upon. They include the Duke of the Abruzzi, cousin of the king, the admiral of the navy, who will be head of the mission; Senator William Marconi will also be a member.
Senator Tittoni, former minister of foreign affairs, was also expected to join the party but has found it impossible to go. The mission will include well known military, navy, financial and industrial experts.

O. S. U. JUNIORS ASKED TO TAKE MORE TRAINING

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
Columbus, O., April 27.—President W. O. Thompson, of Ohio State University, has asked all juniors and seniors in the university to report for further instruction in military science. All of these men have had two years of military training and the new course to be offered will consist of tactical instructions and field drill, to qualify the students for commissions in the regular army.

SECOND OFFERING
OF WAR LOAN IS EXPECTED SOON

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
Washington, April 27.—Secretary McAdoo is considering another offering of $200,000,000 in treasury certificates due January 30 to the banks of the country within the next ten days. The plan has not been definitely approved but indications are that it will be adopted.
Announcement as to the details of the first issue of bonds authorized under the $7,000,000,000 war finance law probably will be made not later than May 1.
The second offering of treasury certificates, if made soon, probably will follow the same course as that adopted in the first offer of $250,000,000 from which $200,000,000 was loaned yesterday. Great Britain. The issue would be placed through the Federal Reserve Banks acting as fiscal agents for the government and would be offered primarily to the banks of the country, state banks and private institutions as well as members of the federal reserve system.
Conferences as to the further needs of the entente governments were continued today with representatives of Great Britain and Italy.
Secretary McAdoo is accumulating detailed reports on the needs of the entente governments upon which he will base recommendations to President Wilson as to the size of the first bond issue.

MOST OF 3 BILLION LOAN WILL GO TO
U. S. MANUFACTURERS

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
Washington, April 27.—Between $400,000,000 and $500,000,000 a month probably will be required by the allied nations in war loans from the United States, preliminary estimates in Secretary McAdoo's hands today indicated. At this rate the proceeds from the authorized bond issue of $3,000,000,000 for allied loans would last only six or seven months, but the estimates may be reduced to make the total sum sufficient for a year. Practically the entire amount would be spent in the United States, according to present plans.
Great Britain needs $200,000,000 to $250,000,000 a month; France $100,000,000 to $125,000,000; Russia not more than $100,000,000; and Italy about $50,000,000. These figures are tentative, but Secretary McAdoo is anxious to reduce them speedily to a definite basis, so that he may recommend soon to President Wilson a program for issuing the necessary securities.
At the rate of a half billion dollars in loans a month a billion dollars will be required before June 30, when the first proceeds from a bond issue might be available. This sum could be raised meanwhile only by issue of additional treasury certificates similar to the $250,000,000 issue, proceeds from which were called for Wednesday. It was said today a second issue of the same size as the first might be issued within ten days. All these certificates would be convertible into bonds when the latter are issued.

JOFFRE ADVISES
AMERICAN FORCE
ON FRENCH FRONT

Washington, April 27.—Conferences between members of the French war mission and American government officials for exchange of views regarding the conduct of the war against Germany began here yesterday after the leading commissioners had paid their official calls on President Wilson, Vice President Marshall and Secretaries Lansing, Baker and Daniels.
Of foremost importance was a long talk between Marshal Joffre and members of his staff and Secretary Baker, General Scott, chief of staff, and several other American army officers. It took place at the home of Harry White, former American ambassador to France, where the French visitors are being entertained as the guests of the nation.
France is known to desire the sending of an American expeditionary force to co-operate with her armies, and Marshal Joffre came to the United States prepared to give reasons for the opinion of French military experts that the sending of such a force is advisable. Information regarding the meeting between the military leaders was withheld.

What President Wilson
Expects of Each Citizen

Personal responsibility for the outcome of the war is brought home to every man and woman of the United States by President Wilson's appeal to enlist in the great civilian army, without whose whole-hearted services, "mere fighting would be useless."

"This plea to the American people," declares the Washington Evening Star, "is the most important stroke yet delivered in the battle of preparedness," and the Philadelphia North American remarks that "never before in history has a nation received so sobering a summons at the beginning of a war."

In THE LITERARY DIGEST for April 28th, the leading article gives a complete description of how the great army of industry is being mobilized throughout the country. It shows the movements that are under way to increase the cultivation of the land, the proposals to solve the problem of a scarcity of farm labor, and numerous other activities. While Germany hails with delight the President's appeal, seeing in it a declaration of weakness because of a lack of supply of food-stuffs, no red-blooded American who reads this article will for one moment be convinced that there is any truth in Professor Wygodzinski's statement in the Dusseldorf General Anzeiger, that "on the American wheat-field the war will be decided in our (Germany's) favor."

Other articles of scarcely less importance in this number of "The Digest" are.

U-BOAT WARFARE UNPROFITABLE ON THIS SIDE OF POND

Washington, April 27.—Rear Admiral Sir Dudley R. S. DeChair, the veteran naval officer of Great Britain's war commission to the United States gave a group of Washington newspaper correspondents today a firsthand story of some of experiences during the two years he commanded a patrol fleet chasing German submarines. Without minimizing the gravity of the submarine menace, he confidently predicted that it would be overcome.

Commenting on suggestions that Germany might undertake a submarine campaign on the American coast, the admiral said this would not be profitable for the German point of view without extensive supply bases on this side of the Atlantic.

The admiral spoke of the memorable lessons the allies had learned in the war and said he and his colleagues had come to place them at the disposal of the American government.

"I only wish," he said, "that I could tell you the number of German submarines that we have sunk. Unfortunately, however, that is a naval secret, as also are the means of detection of submarines and of combating them, which it will be necessary to guard in closest secrecy until the end of the war. Your navy has been furnished with full details, however, by the present mission."

Of the prospect of submarines appearing in American waters, Admiral DeChair said:

"It would not pay Germany to inaugurate a general submarine campaign off the American coast unless she could establish bases here. Each submarine carries from eight to 10 torpedoes and besides a limited fuel supply, and would largely be wasted in the long trip over and back, not to mention the wear and tear. She would probably receive 'Mother submarines' to supply fuel and torpedoes are known to be in operation, but little direct evidence has been received that they are successful. The great difficulty in locating the submarine on patrol is largely responsible. As a result, the Germans prefer to stay out for two or three weeks and then return to port, whence they are sent out again almost before the crews have had time to reach shore."

"Nobody knows exactly how many submarines the Germans are building, but we know they are working at feverish speed and have heard reports that they are turning out from two to three a week. The time of construction is about eight months, with a similar length of time for torpedoes, and great uncertainty exists as to how long Germany can continue to supply both vessels and torpedoes."

"The crew of a submarine as a rule requires from six weeks to two months' training, but the officers and other experts require at least three months. There have been many reports that the Germans have been forced to weaken the personnel of the high sea fleet to maintain their supply of seamen, but of this we are uncertain. It is, however, absolutely true, that some of the captured crews are nearly crazy and wholly sick of their job."

"The best defense against submarines, we have found, is the armed ship. During the early days they entirely veered away from such vessels and even now only attack them submerged, when it is necessary to waste a torpedo, which can often be dodged, and expose the submarine itself to destruction. We have found that they are very much disconcerted if an armed ship turns on them direct and tries to run them down."

"Night attacks by submarines are not especially to be feared, as it is nearly as easy for a vessel to see a submarine as it is for a submarine to see a vessel. Usually they run on the surface at night, charging their batteries and leave behind them a plain, phosphorescent wake as does a torpedo fired at night. Sometimes, of course, they catch the loom of a ship on the skyline to great advantage. It is at night only that they have any opportunity to rig up their small wireless devices to receive orders from home."

"Submarine chasers are very valuable, as they are fast and especially unpopular with the undersea boats. A three-pound gun is effective if it strikes the vessel's shell, but where the submarine is submerged a four-inch gun is desirable to break down the conning tower. Submarines we know are carrying four-inch guns themselves, and are reported to be carrying five and six-inch guns. Their cruising capacity is also being largely increased."

"It is extremely difficult to know if you have actually sunk a submarine, as sometimes they merely sink to the bottom. Presence of oil on the surface is a good indication, though not absolutely conclusive. It may be used for deception. All the indications are good that the American steamer Mongolia bagged one, though it is possible it got away."

ROOSEVELT STARTS ON WESTERN TRIP SPEAKS IN CHICAGO

[Associated Press Telegram] New York, April 27.—Theodore Roosevelt will leave this afternoon for Chicago where he will speak tomorrow night under the auspices of the National Security League. S. Standwood Menken, chairman of the league's executive committee, will accompany him. The league announced that several western governors and mayors and representatives of patriotic societies will attend a luncheon in Colonel Roosevelt's honor Saturday. Before the evening meeting the colonel will be entertained at a small dinner at which a number of prominent men will be guests.

If You Have Any Symptoms of Kidney Trouble, Get a Box Today—But Be Sure the Words "Dodd's Kidney Pills" Are on the Cover.

So fatal are the ravages of kidney disease, that insurance companies look upon it with grave concern. Some companies even go so far as to publish monthly publications to educate their policy holders about kidney troubles and how to prevent or check them. The whole fault rests in the people disregarding their first warnings.

With the slightest backache, throbbing pain through the loins, stiffness in stooping or lifting; immediately start taking the kidneys. Take heed of these danger signals, as well as spots appearing before or puffiness under the eyes, pain in back of neck, dizzy spells, rheumatic pains, swollen feet or ankles, bed-wetting, nightly arising. Step into your nearest drug store. Obtain Dodd's Kidney Pills and begin taking them at once.

For years thousands have testified to "DODD'S" as a kidney and bladder tonic and reconstructer. Be sure to get DODD'S the name with the three D's for diseased, disordered, deranged kidneys. Accept no similar named article. Money back if not satisfied. 50c any druggist or Dodd's Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

"MOONSHINE" IS TOPIC DISCUSSED BY MR. McDONALD

The Community Builder (Chicago) thus refers to Hon. B. F. McDonald who is now lecturing in the south on the largest, Chautauqua circuit.

"Moonshine" the subject of B. F. McDonald's address at the Redbank Chautauqua does not refer to that product of the southern mountains which has won fame in novels and revenue officers' reports.

"I base my topic upon Webster's definition of moonshine and not on the vernacular," declares Mr. McDonald. "Webster defines it as 'the light of the moon, hence show without substance,' and it is my particular aim to reveal the falsities and frailties of every phase of life with which I have had to deal during a lifetime of contact with men of every class."

In his long career as a practicing attorney, Mr. McDonald has had the opportunity of studying men and human nature and particularly has he delved deep into the subject of dual living. Sham is ruthlessly exposed in McDonald's lectures and fraud held up before the public in its true aspect.

There is "Moonshine" in government state, and town life. It is found in church life and school life. Mr. McDonald's lecture is not a ranting, hysterical protest. Rather it is backed by sound logic and a broad humanitarian appeal.

The newspapers in all the towns visited by Mr. McDonald speak highly of his lecture and of its reception by the people.

KENTUCKY BANKERS ARE PREPARING TO AID FARMER

[Associated Press Telegram] Louisville, Ky., April 27.—Approximately 500 bankers from all sections of Kentucky were in Louisville today to attend a conference called by Governor A. O. Stanley to formulate a program for extending financial assistance to farmers in enlarging the production of food crops in this state.

The bankers of the state have generally expressed a willingness to lend to farmers who will undertake to enlarge their production of food crops, all the necessary funds to buy fertilizers, seeds, implements and horses, and for the employment of extra labor.

The meeting of the bankers was called in order that a program might

LOOK BEYOND THE COST PRICE WHEN YOU BUY A REFRIGERATOR

A Refrigerator has more than one price. The price you PAY is only the beginning of expense. The ICE cost is the BIG cost that will equal or exceed the first cost every year, if you buy a cheap, ice-eating Refrigerator.

Automatic Refrigerator

For it is so well built, with its eight honest-built walls, and it is so saving of your ice, that it PAYS THE ADDITIONAL COST over a cheap refrigerator the very first season. At the same time, it keeps food so much tastier. Its automatic circulation prevents flavors mixing. Its built-in water cooler insures a plentiful supply of ice-cold water at all times, without a penny's extra ice cost.

If you don't investigate the Automatic before you buy, you'll regret it. We're glad to show it, without obligation.

KENYON WOULD DRAFT FORTUNES AS WELL AS MEN

same enthusiasm to invent these great salaries and incomes as there is to conscript men.
Enlistments in the army since April 1, Senator Calder declared, show the failure of the volunteer system and "sustain completely the argument that the United States cannot raise an adequate force by that system."
The House resumed debate under a plan to remain in session at least part of the night to dispose of the bill by six p. m. tomorrow if possible.
Chairman Dent closed the argument in favor of the volunteer amendment and Representative Kahn summed up in support of straight conscription.
The House cheered Mr. Kahn loudly when he began. A system which permits the volunteer to sacrifice his life in defense of his flag and permits the slacker to remain at home he denounced as neither fair, just or democratic.
"It is the duty of the individual to respond to colors whenever the nation deems he is needed," he added.
And the selective draft system puts the burden equally on the shoulders of all males of military age.
"Any one who attempts to belittle the value of the conscript does not know what he is talking about. There must be no blunders like those made in the past. Every man between twenty one and forty years old must know that he is liable to be called during the progress of this war. His country will determine when his services are needed and notify him in proper time. That is the democratic, fair, equitable way."

OF INTEREST TO FARMERS
The ideal seed-bed for small grains should first of all be fine. Every particle of soil practically pulverized. Every vestige of the furrow ridges should have disappeared. In addition to being finely pulverized, it should be reasonably well-compacted. Contact with the subsoil should be as near perfect as possible. Air-spaces should be closed up and the top of the seed-bed made fine.
To secure this kind of seed-bed you will need a disk-harrow. We have them—price is $32.50. Or, if you have shale to contend with we have spring-tooth harrows—price, $21.00. We also have a large stock of spike-tooth harrows, either steel or wood lever harrows at reasonable prices to choose the tool we have to make a good seed-bed, which is necessary to secure a good crop.

FIVE YOUNG AMERICANS AND WHAT EACH NEEDS

Member of Vigilantes Prescribes For Men She Has Met Since Outbreak of War,

By ABBIE FARWELL BROWN of the Vigilantes.

I love peace, but this is a good war! Like all women, I hate war. But now I will talk enlistment, urge service, shout war for the sake of peace! I wish I could fight for the honor and safety of my country, to help bring back peace and justice to the world and confound brutal wickedness!

I have talked with five strong young men who have been bawling eagerly for war ever since the sinking of the Lusitania.

(With a pacifist I will not talk. He is a man of straw, a scarecrow.)

The first young man is a six foot minister, and he said: "Well, I would have hustled to serve, if only they had made war sooner upon a larger issue. I must wait now till I see my duty clearer. After all, I'm not quite sure."

That young man needs imagination. The second man is a round shouldered artist, and he said: "But look, I can serve my country best with my brain. Let the brawny common chaps get busy and defend us. Perhaps after that we shan't need."

That young man needs exercise. The third is a new-rich man growing stout. And he said: "Too bad! I've had no training, you know, or I'd make a good officer. But, of course, I can't grub in the ranks with those fellows. However, I'll pay for—"

That young man needs discipline. The fourth is a poor man of foreign extraction. And he said: "You see, I can't afford to risk my job. There must be plenty other fellows who like fighting and haven't any other jobs. Sure they can get along without me."

But, of course, if I have to go— That young man needs the American spirit.

The fifth man is a hearty, virile fellow whose ancestors fought to build up the state. And he said: "Oh, yes! I'm off! It's up to me to do my bit right now for my country, and the women and children, and you. I'm sick of those brute Prussians! They're a murdering, treacherous bunch. And suppose they get over here! O Lord! Hand me a gun, quick!"

That young man needs applause! Yes, I could love that last young man.

It will be dull here till he comes back.

WANTED, A BATTLE SONG; ONE WITH A PUNCH IN IT

Chance For Some Writer to "Put Over" Anthem That Will Stir United States Troops.

In the cabarets the yodelers are working their larynxes to death trying to "put a real one over." The critical patriots draped about the cafe tables hearken and remain unmoved. They rise for "The Star Spangled Banner," cheer for "Dixie" and put their forks down for "America." But the whimsies about the assorted hearts of Maryland, Michigan, Ashkosh, Arkansas and Illinois leave them cold. The big song is still unborn, the song that will make the feet of the army tingle and the heart of it grow strong.

It is "Tipperary" that is credited with winning as many battles for the English as any of their generals. The French likewise have walked through the hail across No Man's Land with boulevard refrains on their lips.

"Something with a swing," said Capt. Tain F. R. Kenney of the regular army recruiting station in Chicago. "If I knew what I'd write it myself. There won't be any mistaking it when it comes, though. Everybody will know it's the song."

"Now is the time for every brass band hero to come to the aid of his country," said another officer at the station. "We don't want any classical stuff or any old stuff. The old airs are still great, but this is a new war, and we want a new song."

Our Bargain
Is all our world upon a counter laid? That is their taunt who say they know us well. Then, like true merchants, let us to our trade: What wares has God to sell?

A world at liberty, a path made clear For steadfast justice and enduring peace. Nations released forever from the fear Of evil days like these—

A sound investment, but... the price is high. Long hoarded wealth in ruin, flame and gloom. Death lurking in the sea and in the sky— What say you? Shall we deal?

Shall we know terror; shall our strong ones fall? That others' children, fearless in the sun. May see our visions and accomplish all That we must have undone?

We take thy bargain, Master of the Mart. Though we may flinch we cannot turn away. Lend thy strong fire upon our heart And make us strong to own the Vagabonds.

Men cannot add to his stature by standing on ceremony.

A large audience saw the pictures of the French frontier shown at the Auditorium theatre last evening for the benefit of the American Ambulance Corps in France. The picture is donated by the American Ambulance Corps headquarters in New York City and the management of the Auditorium theatre donated the theatre orchestra for its presentation last evening.

The members of the A. F. F. W. were in charge, and young women attendants, members of the Red Cross were used. The ushers were Mrs. George Upson, Miss Louise Norpell, Miss Bertha Latimer, Miss Mary Sherwood Wright, Miss Dorothy Beard and Miss Dorothy Edmiston. Miss Mabel Jones sold tickets, while Mrs. Howard Lewis and Mrs. Robins Hunter were on the door. All wore the garb of the Red Cross nurse.

The performance is given for the benefit of the American ambulance work in France, and $125 was realized Thursday evening, the amount being forwarded to the headquarters at New York. Many in buying tickets left bills, saying they would take no change. Emil Morehart, a boy living in Eleventh street, sang the "Three Grenadiers" and for an encore responded with "My Country 'Tis of Thee."

One regrettable feature of the picture was absence of the lecturer, Mr. Barber. He is a Toledo man, and has driven the ambulance shown in the picture, in France. He was wounded in the service and had many experiences. He returned to this country and has accompanied the film in an effort to secure money for the work. Mr. Barber is a student at Kenyon College Gambier, and having returned to school, was detained by examinations, being unable to lecture here. After the school year he will return to France.

WHEAT HITS LOCAL HIGH RECORD; FLOUR ALSO IS ADVANCED

The price of wheat continues to increase and the present week has seen a jump of 50 cents in the price of a barrel of flour. Today a local milling company is selling it wholesale at $13.50 a barrel and retailing it at $14.50 a barrel.

All over the country the price of bread has gone up, and Newark has seen the record broken in the price of these necessities. Dealers are paying $2.70 a bushel for wheat, with no prospect of decrease, but it will probably go higher.

Nearly every 24 hours adds a few cents to the price of foodstuffs, until things are fast reaching the prohibitive stage.

PROSPHATE GIVES WONDERFUL STRENGTH.

Specialist Tells How To Double Strength and Endurance.

A great authority on the subject of health, strength, and endurance, in explaining the remarkable strength and endurance obtained from the use of the product known among druggists as Bitro-Phosphate, claims it is entirely due to its wonderful nerve-building properties. He says, and it must be admitted that his logic is unanswerable, that, inasmuch as the muscles simply transmit power derived from the nervous system, strong nerves and a big reserve of nervous energy are infinitely more important than big muscles. Bitro-Phosphate not being a stimulant drug, but a tissue builder which supplies direct to the brain and nerves the required phosphoric elements, was first prescribed by physicians with astonishing success in the treatment of neurasthenia, insomnia, nervousness, debility and mental depression. It was soon noticed, however, that in addition to permanently relieving nervous disorders, it also marvelously increased strength and endurance. The amount usually prescribed is one 5-grain tablet with each meal, and in view of its comparative inexpensiveness, those who wish to increase their strength and endurance, as well as those who suffer from nervous disorders, are strongly advised to give it an immediate trial.

Note: Bitro-Phosphate mentioned above is one of the reliable preparations that should be universally prescribed by physicians. It is dispensed by W. W. Smith, W. A. Brown and other first class druggists everywhere.—Advertisement.

INDOOR LIFE MAKES FAT.

TRY OIL OF KOREN WITH SIMPLE SYSTEM TO GET FINE FIGURE.

People who spend most of their time indoors and who are deprived of the invigorating air most take precaution to guard against overweight, as fat acquired by indoor life is unhealthy and a danger to the vital organs of the body.

Lack of fresh air weakens the oxygen-carrying power of the blood, so that it is unable to provide strong muscles and vitality, and the retention of moisture and unhealthy fat is the result.

To stay in excellent condition, therefore, on your reserve strength, and are constantly becoming more vital by carrying this extra burden.

You are advised to use a good drug and get a small box of oil of Koren capsules and take one after each meal and one before retiring at night.

Also follow the simple directions that come with the box. If you prefer to get a mail order for booklets, write to the Oil of Koren Co., 111 West 23rd Street, New York, N. Y. It will come to you in a plain envelope.

Extra! The Oil of Koren has been recommended by the highest medical authorities in the world, and a return of the old vigor, freshness, and health is the result. The Oil of Koren is a pure vegetable oil, and is the only one of its kind that is pure and healthful.

Oil of Koren is pleasant to take, and it is the only one of its kind that is pure and healthful. It is the only one of its kind that is pure and healthful.

BROMLEY MEETINGS

very principles of Christianity," he said.

The great qualification for association with Christ was named. "A man's got to be clean to associate with God," he said. The evangelist showed how Adam and Eve had sinned and were therefore unclean.

That too many deliberately shut their hearts to the call of the Holy Spirit, was the assertion of Dr. Bromley. "I tell you," he said, "your stubbornness stands between you and salvation."

Quite a few wrong impressions were corrected. "Riches don't damn and poverty doesn't save," explained the evangelist. "Don't get an idea that the rich go to Hell and the poor go to heaven. Whether you accept Christ or not decides your chances for passing through into the glory kingdom and another thing: I believe in shoutin' if you live as high as you holler." And the crowd laughed in appreciation.

The dangers of causing others to go to Hell were depicted. "If you're destined for the lower regions you're liable to damn others," he said.

A plea for more restrictive immigration was made. "We let the scum of the earth pile into the United States," he declared. "I say we need to be more careful whom we admit."

Dr. Bromley gave a thrilling description of Kate Shelby's heroic deed in saving the fast train and was of the opinion that some sinners had better see God's red light and put on the brakes.

The crowds have been increasing in size at the afternoon meetings. Many good things have been promised for the future.

A wave of silence swept over the audience at the Bromley Evangelistic tabernacle last night when the evangelist asked the people in the audience to pray for themselves.

With heads bowed and quivering lips the multitude of several thousands of people prayed that they themselves might be saved.

Evangelist Bromley made a new tack last night in his sailing through the six weeks' campaign in this city, and while just the night before he spoke of the love of God, the turn was made and he dwelt upon the justice of the Creator.

Delegations trooped into the tabernacle one after the other early in the service. A meeting was held on the square last night, and this brought a number of people to the tabernacle. Rev. Mr. White spoke at this meeting and Miss Rose Fetterolf of the Bromley party had charge of the service. The Munson Music company again gave the use of a piano for this meeting and the truck was donated by the Merchant Transfer company.

The church officials held a meeting in the First M. E. church and they came to the tabernacle in a body and there was also a meeting of young men in the First M. E. church in charge of Prof. Harris and they came to the tabernacle in a body.

Beside these the men's Bible class of the First Presbyterian church, fifty strong, came to the tabernacle and a large banner headed this procession. It was yielded by W. T. Heck.

There were 55 men from the Bible class of the First Baptist church who also turned out for the service and, all these men's organizations occupied front seats in the tabernacle.

Although the weather changed rather suddenly the tabernacle was warm throughout the service and the temperature was easily kept at 68 degrees.

Dr. Bromley's sermon was short and to the point and the entire service, including the after meeting, was over at 9:15 o'clock.

Yesterday morning there were two meetings held in the county jail and the prisoners listened attentively to Miss Rose Fetterolf of the party as she spoke to them.

Frank L. Johnson, the secretary of the Y. M. C. A., was in charge of the meetings. Dallas M. Blatt played the organ and there was a solo by Mrs. Taylor. Rev. Mr. Carman of the Central church led in the prayers. Miss Fetterolf spoke on "Naman the Leper," and there were a number of the prisoners who raised their hands for prayer.

There was a well attended meeting of the men's council held last evening in charge of Rev. S. B. Goff. There will be another meeting of the council tonight in the First Presbyterian church.

The afternoon services at the tabernacle are gaining in popularity continually. Rev. S. B. Goff yesterday afternoon spoke on "Fishing." Several persons came forward after the preaching service for consecration. In the course of his address, Rev. Mr. Goff showed that soul winning is a duty as well as a privilege and that Christians are responsible for the souls of others. After the service Miss Fetterolf held her Bible lecture and this was also largely attended.

Rev. Mr. Goff preaches again today and on Saturday afternoon Rev. Dr. Bromley will have charge of the service for women only.

Miss Fetterolf this afternoon in the Bible class is taking the book of Romans as her subject and Tuesday night she will speak on the book of Jude.

There was a well attended meeting held at the Children's Home yesterday and Miss Fetterolf of the Bromley party, had charge of it. A
